Walkway in front of the Ratsaal (council chamber) and meeting rooms
On the rear wall:
Portraits of kings and dukes from the 17th, 18th and 19th Century
Sculptures and reliefs on the columns

View of the old City Hall, oil painting, 1754

Next to the entrance to the Ratsaal (council chamber), 2nd floor
Sandstone coat of arms dating from 1732, formerly on the Flämisches Tor (Flemish gate to the city)

Rotunda, 2nd floor
“Andreas Gayk” (Kiel’s first Lord Mayor following the Second World War), iron bust, Zoltan Soltesz, 1955

Magistratssaal (magistrate’s chamber), 2nd floor
View of Hall City, oil painting, dating from 1896, formerly in the old City Hall on Alter Markt
Three tablets displaying coats of arms and terms in office of Kiel councillors and mayors, 1600-1865
Oil painting of Kiel’s honorary citizens

Rathherrenzimmer (councillors’ room), 2nd floor
View of the old City Hall, oil painting, dating from 1950

Ratsaal (council chamber), 2nd floor
Oil painting of important Kiel citizens and mayors

Poster design for the exhibition held during the 1972 Olympic sailing competitions, collage/mixed materials, Salvador Dalí, 1971

3rd floor, corridor to the Ratsaal (council chamber) gallery
View of Kiel City, oil painting, dating from 1873, formerly in the old City Hall on Alter Markt
Three tablets displaying coats of arms and terms in office of Kiel councillors and mayors, 1600-1865
Oil painting of Kiel’s honorary citizens

Special features:
All wooden sections of the restored Ratsaal (council chamber) and Magistratssaal (magistrate’s chamber) such as the panelled ceiling, wall panels and doors, are made from elm

General information
The City Hall is open Monday to Friday from 8 am to 6 pm.

City Hall and tower tours
City Hall tower tour:
Dates: May to September, Wed 12:30 pm / Sat 11 am, 11:45 am, 12:30 pm;
Meet at City Hall’s main entrance; EUR 4.00/2.00 (max. 18 people)

City Hall tours:
Dates: all year round, by request
Duration: approx. one hour
Number of participants: max. 18 people
Prices: EUR 46/group, Euro 15 extra charge for foreign languages

Booking and information
Tel. +49 (0)431-67910-13 or e-mail: f.feldhusen@kiel-marketing.de

Stadtarchiv (city archives)
Mon-Tue 8:30 am - 4 pm; Thur 8:30 am - 6 pm

Published by
Address: Postfach 1152, 24099 Kiel,
Edited by: Pressereferat/Amt für Bauordnung, Vermessung und Geoinformation, Untere Denkmalbehörde,
Layout: pur.pur GmbH, Heikendorf,
Photographs: LH Kiel, Stadtarchiv, pur.pur,
Printed by: hansadruck, 2nd edition
Kiel, July 2018,
Translation: HK Übersetzungen, Kiel

1st floor
Corridor with Terrazzo

2nd floor
Entrance parking area

3rd floor, corridor to the Ratsaal (council chamber) gallery
View of Kiel City, oil painting, dating from 1873, formerly in the old City Hall on Alter Markt
Three tablets displaying coats of arms and terms in office of Kiel councillors and mayors, 1600-1865
Oil painting of Kiel’s honorary citizens

Special features:
All wooden sections of the restored Ratsaal (council chamber) and Magistratssaal (magistrate’s chamber) such as the panelled ceiling, wall panels and doors, are made from elm

2nd floor
Corridor

3rd floor, corridor to the Ratsaal (council chamber) gallery
View of Kiel City, oil painting, dating from 1873, formerly in the old City Hall on Alter Markt
Three tablets displaying coats of arms and terms in office of Kiel councillors and mayors, 1600-1865
Oil painting of Kiel’s honorary citizens

Special features:
All wooden sections of the restored Ratsaal (council chamber) and Magistratssaal (magistrate’s chamber) such as the panelled ceiling, wall panels and doors, are made from elm

kiele.de
with three internal courtyards and a long asymmetrically. Architecturally the building is in fact a grouped construction. The presence of Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Hermann Billing, was officially opened on 12 November 1911 in Kiel City Hall, built according to designs by the architect. Architecture

For more than 100 years Kiel City Hall – das Kieler Rathaus – has shaped the city’s image. Its tower can be seen from afar, many streets in the city centre seem to run directly towards it. The City Hall has been the home of Kiel’s city politics since 1913/14, Stiftung Kieler Bürger.

Theodor Heuss.

Rudolf Schroeder. Made possible through donations from private individuals, companies and organisations.

22 June 1950: Official opening of the rebuilt City Hall by Lord Mayor Andreas Gayk, in the presence of the Federal President at the time, Theodor Heuss.

Kiel City Hall, built according to designs by the architect Hermann Billing. Officially opened on 12 November 1911 in Kiel City Hall, built according to designs by the architect.

The Rathausplatz side of the building, the presence of Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Majolika Keramik Manufaktur, Karlsruhe-based "Nymphe" (nymph), bronze, Hermann Föry, 1911. Bronze tablet commemorating City Hall staff killed in the First World War, Carl Rhein, 1925. The Rathausplatz side of the building, the presence of Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Majolika Keramik Manufaktur, Karlsruhe-based "Nymphe" (nymph), bronze, Hermann Föry, 1911. Bronze tablet commemorating City Hall staff killed in the First World War, Carl Rhein, 1925. The Rathausplatz side of the building, the presence of Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Majolika Keramik Manufaktur, Karlsruhe-based "Nymphe" (nymph), bronze, Hermann Föry, 1911. Bronze tablet commemorating City Hall staff killed in the First World War, Carl Rhein, 1925. The Rathausplatz side of the building, the presence of Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Majolika Keramik Manufaktur, Karlsruhe-based "Nymphe" (nymph), bronze, Hermann Föry, 1911. Bronze tablet commemorating City Hall staff killed in the First World War, Carl Rhein, 1925. The Rathausplatz side of the building, the presence of Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Majolika Keramik Manufaktur, Karlsruhe-based "Nymphe" (nymph), bronze, Hermann Föry, 1911. Bronze tablet commemorating City Hall staff killed in the First World War, Carl Rhein, 1925. The Rathausplatz side of the building, the presence of Kaiser Wilhelm II.